Introduction

With its exquisite cuisine, vibrant markets, rich cultural traditions, and breathtaking scenery, Thailand has been providing travelers with countless unique experiences for decades. With borders set to open later in the year, it's time to start planning a new bucket-list for your next visit starting from the mountains in the north right down to the beaches in the south.

One of the great things about Thailand is you don't have to be a millionaire to enjoy many of the amazing luxury experiences the country has to offer. From high society dining to private sightseeing flights, there are a variety of ways to make your holiday to Thailand extra special. In no particular order, here are our selection of luxury experiences to try out on your next trip to Thailand.

TA KHAI / ROSEWOOD PHUKET

TA KHAI is a casual dining restaurant hidden in a private beach of luxurious Rosewood Phuket hotel inspired by fishing gears made by local wisdom and local food that is very simple, but gets into a root of culinary arts. Chef Uncle Noon and Anty Yai are not reluctant to show their advanced local cooking skill to guests with open kitchen. All menu is created under a concept of "Partners in Provenance" by supporting local ingredients such as free-range pigs, shrimp and fish from sustainable farms, Sang Yod rice from Pattalung and more. The recommended dishes are red curry with crab meat and betel leaf, crab with noodle and dry pork stew- a signature menu in Phuket.
